Alleged composer Arrested.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Dec. 28.—A young man twenty-three years old who gave his name as F. P. Hall has been arrested at Niagara Falls, Ont., on a description forwarded by the New York police. Hall is supposed to be James Abeel, the man who, it is alleged, masqueraded under the name of J. Ogden Goefel, Jr., and became engaged to Miss Anderson, a telegraph operator in a New York hotel.

Are you about to build? If so see that your builder's contract has a clause providing that the structure shall be erected by union labor which will insure you of good work and a job completed without delay. Per order Union 481, Carpenters and Joiners of America. S. R. Doty, Sec.

SANTO DOMINGO'S TROUBLES

Whole Country Said to Be in a Condition of Anarchy.

New York, Dec. 28.—The Clyde line steamer New York has arrived from Santo Domingo, having been subjected to considerable delay in loading and discharging cargo at ports of the revolution swept island.

Cabin passengers on board said that the whole country was in a turmoil of riot, anarchy and revolution with revolution. Communication between ports, they said, was suspended, and all telegraph wires were down. At Porto Plata, the home of Morales, the people were his ardent supporters. It was reported, until he went to Santo Domingo city, when a strong Jimines party developed. It was said that Morales would send the war vessels to bombard the town to put down the revolt.

ENGLAND AMAZES RED MAN

Indian Traveler Tells of Ignorance About His Race Existing Abroad.

An Indian stopped in Philadelphia recently on his way to Omaha, Neb. He had been to London, participating in a wild west melodrama there, and it was amusing to hear him describe the ignorance regarding his race that exists abroad.

"An Englishman," he said, "thinks that a red man can run from 200 to 225 miles a day without effort. He thinks an Apache can overtake a deer. In fact, I read in London a short story describing how in a fifteen mile run an Apache caught a deer, choked it to death and ate its heart raw."

"The English believe that an Indian is so generous he would give away the clothes on his back. I was accosted by hosts of beggars in London, and they couldn't understand why I didn't hand out a half crown to each of them. They also think an Indian will endure the severest pain without flinching out of pride. A young English girl stuck a pin in my leg at a restaurant one night and was surprised when I said 'Ouch' and swore."

Lower License in New York State.

Yonkers, N. Y., Dec. 28.—Assemblyman Elect George W. Rigby declares that at the next session of the legislature he intends to work diligently to pass a bill prescribing lower cost for saloon or hotel liquor selling privileges. The movement, it is said here, is being undertaken by the brewing interests. Mr. Rigby hopes to be appointed on a committee where he can work effectively in this direction.

Assaulted and Left to Freeze.

Huntingdon, Pa., Dec. 28.—John Smith, aged twenty-three years, son of Rev. M. L. Smith of this place, was found frozen to death at the entrance to the Driving park, near here. He had been struck behind the right ear with a blunt instrument. George Sharner, a telegraph operator, has been arrested as young Smith's assailant and has been held without bail.

Wilder's Dynamic Joke.

It recently happened that Marshall P. Wilder was in the company of a number of men who were discussing the wonders of invention and of discovery during the last hundred years. During a lull in the conversation Wilder ventured to intimate that to him dynamite seemed the most wonderful of all inventions.

"Why dynamite?" asked one of the men.

"Because there's nothing in the world that can hold a candle to it."

Whereupon the company chased Marshall from the room.—New York Times
